OUR WEEK OF LEARNING

Reading: We're using inferences in fiction texts to explore setting, characters, plot, conflict, and theme. This fits in perfectly with the elements of our personal narrative writing.

Writing: We have all the elements of a personal narrative. Now we're putting it altogether with a plan, drafting, editing, revising, and publishing!

Math: We're jumping into Unit 5! This is all about multiplicative comparison and measurement conversions. Here's more information.

Theme: We've studied the explorers, now we're learning about the people who made the West their home: Fur Trappers, Fur Traders, and Mountain Men (guides).
