OUR WEEK OF LEARNING

Reading: We're loving reading about the main character Mia in our read aloud Front Desk. She's ten years old, just like us, but her experiences are very different.

Writing: We're wrapping things up and putting together a plan for individual summer learning.

Math: We're jumping into Unit 8: Home Link Letter. We're putting together everything we've learned about fractions and tackling word problems with a mix of operations.

Theme: Now that we've learned the basics of sound waves, we're getting into the hard core science of how energy is transferred in both air and water.
Hint: it's all about particle collision.
