THE WEEK OF: NOVEMBER 7TH

UPCOMING DATES

November 9th P/T Conferences 2pm-7pm
November 18th Pajama Day
November 21st-25th Thanksgiving Break - No School

OUR WEEK OF LEARNING

Reading: We're continuing to examine characters in read aloud and independent reading.

Writing: We have a lot of opinions and we love having the opportunity to share them through writing. We're using paragraphs as the building blocks for our first five paragraph essays.

Math: We're starting a new unit! Now that we're fraction experts, we're manipulating fractions using different operations. We're starting with repeated addition and multiplication. Then we'll move into addition and subtraction. Here's more information about Unit 3.

Theme: We're looking at rockfalls and landslides as we continue to learn about ways the earth changes.

REMINDERS

Thank you for meeting with me during conferences. I look forward to seeing everyone else next week!

Please send your children with snow clothes when there's snow on the ground.
