OUR WEEK OF LEARNING

Reading: We're starting a new read aloud book, Wonder. We're excited to learn about another main character who overcomes challenges. We're looking at character development. We'll compare and contrast main characters from different books.

Writing: We're jumping into paragraphing. We'll take two weeks to learn the art of the paragraph and practice with different topics in preparation for longer writing pieces.

Math: We're wrapping up our look at equivalent fractions using number lines. Then we'll use what we've learned to compare fractions. We'll use benchmark fractions and find common denominators.

Theme: We're beginning our second science unit on the birth of rocks. We'll start with a phenomena about fossils and then jump into exploring volcanoes.
