REMINDERS

We're starting Scientist and Reporter of the Week. See the schedules above. You'll see more information come home on your child's week.

OUR WEEK OF LEARNING

Reading: We're continuing our Front Desk Global Read Aloud and learning lots of new vocabulary.

Writing: We are starting our fiction unit. We'll explore great mentor texts and start with "What If" statements to generate ideas.

Math: We're starting Unit 2. Our main themes are factors, multiplication, time, area, and classifying shapes. Here's the Home Link Letter for more information and ideas for at home practice.

Theme: We're digging into the Colorado Story and Native American History in Colorado and the West.

Grammar: We're learning about run-on sentences and reviewing all the different sentence types.
