OUR WEEK OF LEARNING

Reading: We're starting book clubs this week. Ask us what book we're reading.

Writing: We're getting inspiration from poetry, including deliciously descriptive words, literary devices, and cadence.

Math: We're loving math workshop and continuing our work on place value and rounding.

Theme: We're learning from Mountain Roots in the school garden and learning about local ecosystems.

Grammar: We're examining simple, compound, complex, and fragment sentences. We'll be reviewing subjects and predicates in the process.
